A Man's Life – A Nation's History

A Newsletter for Friends of the Sanderson

Fall 2016 Issue 17

NEWS FROM THE PRESIDENT –

Sue Minarchi

I hope everyone had an enjoyable summer! We've been busy at the Sanderson Museum!

If you missed the Sanderson Square Dance last month, you missed something special! Everyone who came had lots of fun square dancing just as Chris enjoyed years ago. And it was something for all ages ... from little kids to the more mature kids.

Be sure to mark your calendars for the "Sanderson Shopping Spree". It has been an enjoyable time in years past and promises to be again this year. Come to buy all of those unique holiday gifts for that special someone.

Definitely stop in to see us if you are on the Chadd's Ford Historical Society "Candlelight Christmas Tour". It is a great holiday event and always fun to see local houses decked out for the holidays.

Last, but certainly not least, everyone knows that volunteers are the lifeblood of the Sanderson Museum. I really hope you'll think about joining our volunteer family. It's only one 4-hour shift per month and there are lots of volunteer benefits, such as a discount in museum gift shop, field trips, get-togethers, and continuing education. It is vital for the museum's future to have volunteers available to staff its open hours and various events. This is a very critical need for us. We can't keep the museum open for visitors without you!

See you at the museum!

ASK TO SEE

Chuck Ulmann, Curator

We need your help. Our changing public display is somewhat limited - not by quantity or quality - by lack of space. I want to share a lot more of our significant collection of artifacts with the world using the Internet, and that's where we need your help. We are planning to put groups of items up on the Internet where they can be seen by the entire world! Our museum management software company, the producer of the product called PastPerfect, has provided us with the tool to do this that is extremely easy to use and is a truly cost effective way for us to show the world what the Sanderson Museum has behind the doors that normally doesn't get seen! We need your input as to what we should show. I already have some ideas. You are part of the Sanderson Museum so tell us what you think we should show.

Please see Ask to See page 2

Ask to See from page 1

Secondly, once we decide what to put on the Internet, we need help in writing the descriptions. They need to be concise and well crafted. If they are too long, people will not read them.

Don't worry about being computer literate. We will handle that. Don't worry about being close to Chadds Ford. I'll send you pictures/images and a form you can use to compose the information. If you don't have a computer or are uncomfortable using one, writing the information on paper is fine and we will be glad to send the information to you by US Mail.

So "Ask to See" items you would like to see shared on the Internet. Our first set of items will be our "Simply Sanderson" exhibit. I'm excited for the Sanderson Museum to make use of this widespread communications strategy. I'm sure you will be excited when you see the results as well!! Please help us share our unique art and historic artifacts with a wider audience. Not only will this be great for the museum, but it will be fun, too!
